

Case Study – Oak Intranet

Oak Intranet a technology company that provides software enabling user to collaborate with their teams, were looking for private meeting space that created a collaborative working environment for their own people, whilst delivering a real design statement! The Meeting pod Co supplied 3 fully enclosed meeting pods with different interior colours to deliver on those core objectives.

